

SUMMER 2007

Do you ever wonder what you'll do when you graduate from high school, or don't you have a clue?

What sort of career do you think you'd enjoy?

To find out, what strategies would you employ?

What are your interests and strengths; what's within your reach?

Have you ever thought that you might like to teach?

To explore the teaching profession during your summer vacation

Come to LaGuardia Community College for: Topics in Multicultural Education

In this College Now program, you will learn about learning

You'll tutor children every week, if, for that experience, you are yearning

You'll talk about literacy and cultural diversity;

about equal opportunity for students facing adversity

You'll examine the school system, meet teachers and other guests;

experts who, to address your questions, will do their best

Of the field of education you'll get a taste

You'll improve your academic skills; your summer you won't waste!

- Mornings will be devoted to learning about Foundations of Education in the United States, issues surrounding multicultural education, and tutoring twice a week in a local elementary school
- Afternoons will be spent discussing the teaching of literacy and math skills to an ESL population, preparing directly for tutoring and reflecting on our practice

SCHEDULE OF CLASSES: 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.*

* Please note that on tutoring days, you will be asked to arrive at LaGuardia by 8:30 a.m., in order to travel to the school

Monday, July 9 - Thursday, July 12
Monday, July 16 - Thursday, July 19
Monday, July 23 - Thursday, July 26
Monday, July 30 - Thursday, August 2

WE WILL PROVIDE:

- Course Reading Materials
- Metro Cards
- A snack
- Lunch

Our program is open to rising juniors and seniors, including ESL students at Level 4 or higher.
