Student Consent Form

Please read this consent form carefully. By signing the form you are agreeing to allow The English Language Center to use sound and/or vision of you, the student, or your work for the project specified in this form.

This document gives the The English Language Center permission to use works created by students in the course of their studies, or to use sound and/or vision of the student, for purposes of professional development.

This does not mean that you, the student, lose ownership rights over your works — simply that The English Language Center has permission to use your works for the purposes mentioned.

1. I give permission to the The English Language Center to use my works, my sound/vision, and/or my name for the class website (<http://faculty.lagcc.cuny.edu/eiannotti/telc7.2>) as well as for the purposes of professional development and publication of The English Language Center's activities.
2. The English Language Center understands that I own the intellectual property rights for my works, my sound and my vision, and that this consent form is not meant to transfer my ownership.
3. I understand that by giving this permission, The English Language Center can use my works, my sound and/or my vision in any way it chooses, for the purposes described above. It may reproduce them in any form, in whole or in part, and distribute them by any medium including the Internet, CD-ROM, or other multimedia uses.
4. I understand that my works, my sound and/or my vision may be kept on file for an indefinite period of time and that they may be used in the future by The English Language Center for the purposes listed in item 1.
5. I understand that The English Language Center will not pay me for giving this permission.
6. I understand that The English Language Center is not bound to use sound or vision of my works or me.
7. If I decide to withdraw my permission at any time, I understand that it is my responsibility to contact The English Language Center and inform them of my decision in writing.
