MLA style is used in English and the Humanities. Whether you are new to MLA or if you have used it in the past you may want to take advantage of one of these drop-in sessions to get help or to verify your citations.

APA style is used in Allied Health, Psychology, and the Social Sciences. It is very different from MLA and you may want to get some one-on-one assistance completing your APA bibliography. We're here to help and answer your questions!
